ADVERSE INFORMATION: The Mesa Police Department has recommended denial by citing the following public safety concerns:

- Applicant, Ernest Hickman is a documented member of the criminal street gang, Arizona Soul Brothers. The address listed on the application for Forty Eight Foundation is the same address of the Soul Brothers' clubhouse.
- April 6, 2017 in Phoenix, Arizona Soul Brothers hosted the same event, where there was a gang shooting; 2 people shot, one killed. The flyer for the 2017 Phoenix event is a similar flyer being used for this year's Mesa event, which lists Arizona Soul Brothers as the sponsor (see 2018 and 2017 flyers attached.)
- On December 21, 2014, there was a homicide at an event sponsored by the Soul Brothers. The homicide involved members of the Soul Brothers and another Arizona criminal street gang.
- January 30, 2016, an arson by another gang occurred at the Soul Brother's clubhouse.
- In 2014 Maricopa County Attorney charged multiple members of the Soul Brothers with participating/assisting in a criminal street gang, money laundering, conspiracy and narcotics drugs sales/possession charges. There are multiple convictions related to this case.
- There are documented instances at Soul Brother's events where the members go into adjacent neighbors, shut down streets and hold drag races.

OTHER INFORMATION: None.
