5. Hear reports from Board Members of current events and educational topics related to historic preservation.*

Boardmember Nelson shared his exhibit, Matriarchs of Washington Park will be at the Mesa Historical Museum through April 30, 2026.

6. Items from citizens present.

Vic Linoff, Mesa Preservation Foundation, 628 N Center St, stated he was appreciative to the Board for their participation in the 2026 Art & Essay Contest as he hoped it may inspire our youth to be involved in historic preservation someday. Mr. Linoff also provided an update on the restoration of neon signs and the potential placement of these signs in the city.

7. Historic Preservation Officer's Updates.*

The following items were shared with the Board:

- Mr. Kriegl shared details for both the Arizona Historical Society's Al Mérito Award (deadline April 30, 2026) and the Arizona Preservation Foundation's Governor's Heritage Preservation Honor Award (deadline April 15, 2026).
- Mr. Kriegl anticipates the draft of the Historic Preservation Design Guidelines will be posted online within the next week or so. Staff continues to work on the Historic Preservation and Archaeology Code text amendments.
- Mr. Kriegl expressed the importance of board member attendance at upcoming meetings as they will help determine the course of historic preservation in Mesa.
